ASE holds an "Educational Lecture" at Al-al Bayt University

November 12, 2024

The Amman Stock Exchange (ASE), in cooperation with the School of Business at Al -al Bayt University, held an educational lecture on " "The performance of the ASE in Recent Years and its Safe Investment Mechanism", which was held in the presence of a number of faculty members and university students on Sunday, 10/11/2024. Holding of such lectures comes within the framework of the ASE's policy and its social responsibility and its keenness to strengthen its partnership with universities and spread knowledge and investment culture in everything related to the Jordanian capital market and investment in securities and linking the theoretical side with the practical side.

During the lecture, the CEO of the ASE Mazen Wathaifi, reviewed the importance of the ASE in the economy, the nature of its work, the technical and legislative frameworks governing it, in addition to the most important developments and achievements, future plans, challenges it faces and ways to overcome them.

At the end of the lecture, Wathaifi answered the questions and inquiries of the faculty members and students about everything related to the Jordanian capital market Institutions in general and the ASE in particular.
