

Tuesday December 31, 2013 will be the last trading sessions of the year

December 26, 2013

According to the Amendment of the provisions of the Article (24) of the Directives of Trading with Securities at the Amman Stock Exchange for 2004, which states that:" " The ETS shall be operated on a daily basis in order to trade securities at the ASE except for public and official holidays" . Therefore ETS will be operated on the last working day of the calendar day starting from this year, and Tuesday 31 Dec, 2013 will be the last trading session for the year 2013.